

Allowing the proposed service will be detrimental to a host of commercial broadcast and shortwave services, including disaster communications provided by Amateur Radio and Military Affiliate Radio System operation. There is plenty of competition for broadband without destroying these services. It appears to be merely another grab for power and money from the monopolistic public utilities. Please deny this application.